All New Sketch Comedies by OOHP

Short, unrelated original comedies –
plus some of the area's finest musicians

September 14, 15; September 21, 22; September 27, 28, 29

NOTE: Special weekday show on Thursday, September 27

* No Sundays ****

It's back! OOHPs' sketches deliver lots of silliness and satire. By "original," we mean all of these sketches will be written by Over Our Head Players. By "sketches," we mean short pieces with minimal technical elements. And by "comedies," we mean funny! Once again, we'll feature live music from some top musicians. From the folks who pen the popular Snowdance hijinks, Theatre/Schmeatre is sure to sell out.

These pieces are not yet rated. We haven't seen them, either!
Theatre/Schmeatre aims for "PG-13 rated" material.

3C

Bold new parody by David Adjmi

A hilarious and occasionally horrifying alternate universe sitcom

November 9, 10, 11; November 16, 17, 18; November 23, 24, 25

Brad, an ex-serviceman, is just back from Vietnam. After one wild party, he wakes up in Connie and Linda's kitchen. The two women are, conveniently, looking for a roommate, so Brad moves in. A series of misunderstandings ensues, spiraling down from farce to devastation. After its premiere in New York, 3C was kept off the stage for years by lawyers who argued that it infringed on copyright laws. Recently, the cease and desist notice was lifted, and Over Our Head Players snatched up the rights to produce it. Inspired by 1950's existential comedy, Chekhov's works, disco anthems, and one very specific 1970's sitcom.

If this were a movie, we think it would be rated "R" for adult themes.

2019 Snowdance® 10 Minute Comedy Festival

15th Anniversary Festival!

Competition of Original Comedies

2019: January 25, 26, 27; January 31, February 1, 2, 3; February 7, 8, 9, 10;

February 14, 15, 16, 17; February 21, 22, 23, 24

You know the drill! The hit playwriting competition draws entries from around the globe. Judges choose the best to produce. Then, in the ultimate interactive experience, the audience votes on who should win the cash prize. It's original comedy plus OOHPs' signature hijinks between plays. Utah has Sundance; Racine has Snowdance! A great reason for season tickets – this popular event sells out.

These plays are not yet rated; they are not yet written!
"R-rated" words or themes may be included.

Leaving Iowa

Warm, Nostalgic, Family Vacation Comedy

by Tim Clue and Spike Manton

A toast to parents from the "Greatest Generation" and a roast of their dedication to the road trip

2019: March 29, 30, 31; April 5, 6, 7; April 12, 13, 14

Simultaneously hilarious and touching: Driving across Iowa, Don relives the vacations he spent as a boy trapped in the family station wagon en route to uninteresting sites. Shifting smoothly from the present to the annual, torturous vacations of his childhood, it will keep you laughing, remembering the childhood vacations you tried to forget. An encore performance brought back by popular demand: we first presented Leaving Iowa in 2009, at Festival Hall, and are bringing it home to Sixth Street Theatre.

If this were a movie, we think it would be rated "PG".
